

BIANCA S. RIESS

1136 NW Windy Beach Lane
Silverdale, WA 98383
(360) 908-2355
Bsymoneriess@icloud.com

Objective

To obtain a position in a new area of health care as a Registered Nurse

Education

Bachelors of Science in Nursing Science December 2016
University of Alaska Anchorage

Licenses, Certifications, and Qualifications

State of Washington, Registered Nurse License #RN61029699 December 2019
BLS Certification January 2022

Qualifications

- 1012.5 total clinical hours as a student nurse with clinical rotations in long-term care, acute care, community/public health, OB, medical-surgical, mental health, and pediatrics
- Able to remain organized and prioritize completion of multiple tasks
- Ability to efficiently collaborate and communicate while working with a team
- Experience in working with diverse client backgrounds

Clinical Experience

Registered Nurse March 2017 – July 2019

Providence Alaska Medical Center

- Completed a 2-year Medical/Surgical Residency program
- Provided total patient care to patients in the Renal Care Unit
- Performed skills such as safe medication administration, taking vital signs, starting IVs, and managing the peritoneal dialysis machines as needed on the floor.
- Utilized EPIC electronic medical record system

Student Nurse May 2015 – December 2016

University of Alaska Anchorage

Fall 2015 – 225 clinical hours, Anchorage Pioneer Home and Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson Hospital – Anchorage, Alaska / Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson, Alaska

- Applied therapeutic communication skills while visiting with residents at the Anchorage Pioneer Home

- Provided care to patients in the Multi-Service Unit at Joint Base Elemendorf-Richardson Hospital
- Performed skills such as safe medication administration, taking vital signs, and starting IVs
- Created care plans based on patient-specific chart assessments
- Completed long-term care and acute care clinical rotations

Spring 2016 – 270 clinical hours, Northwood Elementary and Providence Alaska Medical Center – Anchorage, Alaska

- Worked with a school nurse to provide care to an elementary school population
- Completed OB clinical rotation on the Mother-Baby Unit with observation days in L&D and NICU at Providence Alaska Medical Center
- Assessed newborn patients for stages of development
- Provided care to two patients on the Medical/Surgical Unit at Providence Alaska Medical Center
- Provided safe medication administration including oral, subcutaneous, and IV medications
- Charted in EPIC after patient assessments

Summer 2016 – 225 clinical hours, Alaska Psychiatric Institute and Providence Alaska Medical Center – Anchorage, Alaska

- Assessed individuals admitted to Alaska Psychiatric Institute through observation, interaction, and chart information
- Provided care to pediatric patients at the Pediatric Unit at Providence Alaska Medical Center
- Completed mental health and pediatric clinical rotations
- Planned and provided care to two patients on the Progressive Care Unit at Providence Alaska Medical Center
- Implemented knowledge of chronic respiratory and cardiac diseases to provide competent patient care

Fall 2016 – 292.5 clinical hours, Providence Alaska Medical Center – Anchorage, Alaska

- Worked within a group and collaborated with key informants to complete a population-focused project guided by the nursing process for the Bachelors required capstone course
- Completed 135 hours of a preceptorship with a registered nurse on the Progressive Care Unit at Providence Alaska Medical Center
- Planned and provided care to three patients including assessments and medication administration
- Planned and completed a scholarship project with the guidance of the Progressive Care Unit Nurse Educator and registered nurse preceptor

Honors

Sigma Theta Tau Honor Society 2016

Professional Training

EPIC Computer Charting System 2016

Bringing in the Bystander Workshop 2016